Welcome to our Monthly Global Newsletter!

As we wrap up the year, we're bringing you one final roundup of key regulatory developments from across the globe in December — spanning Australia, Canada, the European Union, the United States, Sri Lanka, and more. From Australia's updated TGA guidance on medical device safety and performance, to the European Union's adoption of the Cyber-Resilience Act (CRA), the global landscape continues to evolve rapidly.

Whether you're a manufacturer, importer, or product designer, staying ahead of these developments is critical—and C-PRAV is here to support you every step of the way.

As 2025 draws to a close, we thank you for staying connected with C-PRAV throughout another year of innovation and global compliance progress. Wherever you are in the world, we wish you a joyful holiday season and a successful start to 2026!
